Subject No. 105
Conducting Revenue cases by private persons other than Pleaders.

Summary of discussion.—In revenue cases, parties may be allowed to appear by agents who are not enrolled Pleaders.

Reply of Government.—This cannot be done.

Subject No. 106
(a) Tank Maintenance Scheme in the Malnad.
(b) Restoration of Malnad tanks.

Summary of discussion.—Rainfall is becoming scanty in the Malnad where there are many old tanks for the proper maintenance of which a scheme is urgently called for.

Summary of discussion.—The repairs of Malnad tanks whose atchkat is Rs. 100 and above should be undertaken by Government.

(c) The restoration of breached tanks in the Malnad may be undertaken by Government.

Reply of Government.—(a), (b) & (c). Under consideration.

Subject No. 107
Appointment of Shanbhog Gumastas.

Summary of discussion.—The recent order of Government that a registered shanbhog should either do the duties of shanbhog himself or resign the office altogether in favor of his nearest relative, requires reconsideration so as to admit of Gumastas being appointed whenever the registered shanbhog does not find it possible for him to do the duties himself.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

Subject No. 108
Shanbogi service Inam lands.

Summary of discussion.—(a) When hissedars in possession of shanbhogi inam lands fail to pay the assessment due thereon, recovery is made by the sale of the movable property of the khatedars. This hardship may be remedied by the removal of these fully assessed lands from the list of inam lands, and by their being registered in the names of the persons in actual enjoyment. Relinquishment of such lands by khatedars is recognised but not transfer of warg by them.

Reply of Government.—The matter is under consideration.

Summary of discussion.—(b) The service inams of shanbhogs being fully assessed, "hissedars" in possession thereof are entitled to some such concession as the payment to them by officiators of a portion of their "Potgi."

Reply of Government.—Hissedars cannot be allowed a share in the Potgi which is remuneration paid to the actual officiator for services rendered. Hissedars' claims will receive consideration when selecting a successor to the officiator on the occurrence of vacancy.

Subject No. 109
Levy of Local Cess on Inam villages.

Summary of discussion.—Local cess at one anna per rupee is levied on the beriz of Jodi villages instead of on the amount of jodi payable to Government. This question deserves consideration.

Reply of Government.—The question cannot be reconsidered. The cess is levied under the authority of the Chief Commissioner's Notification No. 105 dated 17th [illegible] 1874
